caliber of intelligence that was bound to follow in the wake of increased interest in governmental affairs. The addresses of both Bakke and Sessions were warmly applauded and frequently interrupted by applause.A feature of the evening was the introduction of Sessions by Edgemo F. McElmeel, of Los Angeles, who ranked second in the high-school division. In introducing Sessions, McElmeel classified him as a "great American example of one who has studied the Constitution and the application of its laws thoroughly and has found inspiration for loyalty and national service."

HELMES GIVES SERMON

McElmeel pointed out in his brief talk that if more would study the government and its needs there would be less friction, party alignment and criticism.
"It is like concerning Christianity in that it has not eliminated sin, vice and injustice in the world to say that the Constitution is no good because it has not swept away dissatisfaction, sin and injustice," he declared. "The Constitution is on a bedrock as firm as Christianity," he added.
Following Dr. Helms' sermon delivered his sermon on "Crown Winners and Throne Getters" in which he emphasized the importance of perseverance in all undertakings.FRANCE ABLE TO PAY DEBT,
SAYS BRITONIncrease of Exports Plus Luxury Service Given as Basis of Opinion(BY CARL—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH) LONDON, June 7.—France can pay its war debts, and must pay Great Britain before it pays America, is an opinion expressed strongly by Lord Beaverbrook in a feature article in the Sunday Express."France can pay," declared Lord Beaverbrook. "Her exports in 1924 had risen 38 per cent over the equivalent figure in 1912, while imports increased only 23 per cent.
Judged on a tonnage basis, France's export goods increased 18 per cent, while imports increased only 3 per cent. In addition to this must be added the total of her invisible exports, consisting of services, such as which Paris renders the whole world, particularly the United States. The extent of these is almost incalculable. There are the tribute exacted by France for the night life of Paris, representing the price foreigners pay for wine, jewelry, amusements, dresses, and other articles of luxury. A reputable American newspaper estimates that United States citizens spend $100,000,000 yearly for drink bills in Europe, whereof at least a majority is spent in Paris."FISCAL PLAN SHOWS DEBT
IS SHRINKINGJune Issue of Certificates Smallest Refund Action
Since World War(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE) WASHINGTON, June 7.—Marking another advance in the gradual elimination of the floating debt of the government, the Treasury's June financial operation will constitute the smallest refunding since the World War necessitated the sale of great blocks of Federal securities.The June fiscal plan, as announced tonight by Secretary Mellon, calls for the disposal of only $125,000,000 in new securities. The issue, another series of certificates of indebtedness to bear only 3 per cent interest and to mature in one year from the 15th inst., together with balances on hand and tax receipts of the 15th inst., will retire more than $400,000,000 in maturing paper.
The securities maturing are all Treasury notes which have been bearing 4 1/2 per cent interest, so the operation not only effects a reduction in the amount of the debt outstanding, but a saving in the interest payments on the remaining debt, to be replaced by the new issue.The June issue is the second of the usual quarterly refundings of this year, the third of which will come in September. Receipts from the June 15 tax installment and customs revenue and miscellaneous receipts arriving at the Treasury daily will meet the government's needs until the September tax payment is made.In an effort to interest lace weavers of this country, manufacturers of Barmen and Elberfeld, the designs in their lace and trimmings.

DAMAGED BY MOB LAW.

Fresno Ranchers Sue County for Losses Sustained to Crops and Property(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH) FRESNO, June 7.—Legal steps to recover $125,000 in damages from Fresno county for damage said to have been done by irresponsible mobs during the recent contract campaigns of the Sun Maid Raisin Growers and the California Peach and Fig Growers will be initiated tomorrow when claims aggregating $32,500 will be filed on behalf of fourteen non-co-operative growers, attorneys for the growers revealed here.Fifty growers have placed their claims in the hands of a group of attorneys including Julius Hansen, M. F. McCormick, Carl E.
Lindsay and Tener Nielsen, who will seek to recover damages on the ground that the county is responsible for the safeguarding of life and property against mob violence.In addition to starting legal action the growers will appoint a committee to wait upon Gov. Richardson to demand protection from continuation or repetition of the mob spirit which they claim prevailed during the contract campaigns of the co-operative organizations.Two of the attorneys for the growers sought to interest Gov.
Richardson in the question when he was here last Tuesday but he declined to go into the subject because his time was taken up with interviewing candidates for the superior judgeship, it was said.
The largest of the claims to be presented tomorrow are those of Thiele Brothers, Washington Colony, for $5000; Lester (Cobashian), Cornellia avenue, $5000; J. H. Raven, Alvina district, $5000; C. R.
Sherwood, $5000; and J. H. Raven, Alvina district, $5000; Got-fried Jensen, Farrier district, $500.
Several other claims ranging in amount from $500 to $1000 are among the first fourteen to be filed.The claims for damages are the outgrowth of refusal of the growers to sign contracts with the cooperative organizations, according to the attorneys. They claim that the growers were pulled up or mutilated so as to be practically worthless when the growers resisted the efforts of the contract committees to get their signatures to co-operative contracts.The claims for damages are the aged to escape a shot as he following, and it found its mark in the heart of Joseph Baggott, a veteran policeman. Baggott died later.Harry C. Hammler and Walter O'Donnell, leader in Gangland, according to one report, were attempting to hold up the saloon of Thomas McLaughlin at an early hour, when a porter, hearing their commands of "stick 'em up," fired through a door. During the excitement McLaughlin managed to reach his gun and opened fire.Both were hurried to hospitals, but Hammler died before he could be operated upon. O'Donnell, with a bullet in the abdomen, is not expected to live.

O'Donnell is a brother of the notorious "Spikie" O'Donnell, leader of a gang of beer runners. A brother of the O'Donnells recently was murdered and Walter recently was acquitted of the murder of Eddie Taniel, a bootlegger.The police are skeptical of the report that the duo were attempting a hold-up. Instead they give credence to the suggestion that the O'Donnells were up to their old tricks of trying to force a dealer to take the O'Donnell beer.Officer Baggott was killed as he was receiving a telephone call from Arthur Leadly, a negro, that George Galloway, a negro gunman, had shot him in the arm. As Leadly was telling his story Galloway returned and started firing. Baggott was hit by a bullet in the chest, which he fell by again at Baggott, who dropped.PRINCE KOJO SUSPECT IN CHECK CASERoyal African Ejected from Chicago Cafe is Again in SpotlightCHICAGO, June 7.—Prince Kojo Tovorlo-Houssot, the royal African who recently was thrown out of an exclusive cafe here because of his color, is being sought by the police on a charge of passing worthless checks. He had appealed to Chief of Police Collins for documentary evidence of his wealth, but the chief refused to grant a recurrence of the cafe episode and this had been granted.
Today Prince Kojo, accompanied by a woman, went to a Michigan Boulevard shop and bought a frock and lingerie, the bill amounting to $118. He tendered a check for $350. It is said and pocketed the change. Telephone inquiry showed he had no funds at the bank on which the check was drawn.Prince Kojo is a ward of the French government, since the French now control Dahomey, his home. He holds a number of university degrees, is editor of a paper in Paris and has made a number of addresses in Chicago under the auspices of La Certe Francaise.Miss McCormick is Resting After Major Operation(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
CHICAGO, June 7.—Miss Muriel McCormick, oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold F. Rockefeller-McCormick, the granddaughter of John D. Rockefeller, who last night submitted to a major operation for appendicitis, was said to be resting well tonight, although hospital attendants and operating surgeons said it was too early to pronounce her out of danger. It was an emergency operation and various complications were involved with the diseased appendix.Harold F. McCormick, her father, just back from Paris, was reached in New York last night, and took the first train for home, arriving this evening.Miss McCormick is a leading figure in the foreign society circles here and in the East.CONVOYS RETURN AS WORLD FLIGHT FAILS(BY CARL AND ASSOCIATED PRESS)
TOKYO, June 8.—Maj. Pedro Zanni, Argentine flyer, said today that the convoys which were to have assisted him in his hop across the Pacific were returning to Seattle this afternoon. His damaged airplane, injury to which caused abandonment of his attempt to encircle the globe, is to be shipped to Argentina. Maj. Zanni expects to arrive in New York some time in July, whence he hopes to receive a new airplane in which to fly to Buenos Aires. Permission for this flight, however, has not yet been received.Eight Doomed to Hang for Death of British Chief(BY CARL—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH) CAIRO, June 7.—It was necessary for a police guard to control forcibly sign. Egyptians who today were sentenced to hang for the murder of Gen. Sir Les Stack, former aide of Egypt.Immediately upon pronouncement of the death sentence, the prisoners broke into a frenzy, screaming and yelling they were innocent. Several tried to climb from the prisoners' dock into the courtroom as the guards rushed toward them.PLAYGROUNDS IN AMERICA America's first directed public playground, a "sand garden," which was opened in Boston in 1924, was modeled after similar recreation spaces for children in Germany. The growth of public recreation in this country since that date has been rapid. More than 700 cities now maintain playgrounds and recreation centers.

REAPER SCORES IN COURT FIGHT

Widow Will Get Insurance Despite Loss of Suit

Passing of Missing Husband Nullifies Decision

Highest Tribunal Ruling Hits
Seven-Year Theory

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
LINCOLN (Neb.) June 7.—
Death raced with the Federal Supreme Court to determine whether or not Mrs. Vida Mixer should realize upon a life insurance policy in the Modern Woodmen of America by natural or by legal means. Mrs. Mixer's husband disappeared ten years ago from their home in Dakota county. Search was made, but no one ever heard from or of him.

One of the assets left behind him was a $2000 policy in the Modern Woodmen. After his wife had died and seven years ago heard nothing she made a demand for payment of the amount. This was refused. The Woodmen officials desired proof of his death.

Suit was begun in the District Court and the widow won. The order appealed to the Supreme Court and there the real battle was staged. The widow based her request for payment on the application of the ancient doctrine of the law will declare a man legally dead after seven years of unexplained and unheeded absence.

WOODMEN OPPOSED
The Woodmen attorneys interposed the defense that this seven-year theory was a mere court device, had no foundation in any law and was a device employed in the early history of the maritime nations when so many men who went away in ships never returned and in order that their estates might be cleared up and their spouses permitted to remarry some definite term of years was determined upon by the courts. The choice fell on the cryptic number seven.

The Woodmen had formally repudiated this doctrine as unfair in these years when disappearances are so easily accomplished for illegal purposes, and in its by-laws had incorporated a proviso that the policy of a missing man would not mature until such time as a death certificate had been issued by the national fraternal congress indicate would end his expectancy of life. If this were more than seven years the beneficiaries would have to keep paying assessments until the term of natural expectancy had expired, and if under seven years the policy would be paid when that date arrived.

WIDOW SUSTAINED
The State Supreme Court sustained the widow and held that the seven-year theory was well grounded in legal history and was justified by human experience. It denied the right of the order to make a change in the contract with its members. The case was taken to the Supreme Court and there the by-law was upheld. This was the end of the seven-year theory.

And all the time that this case was dragging through the courts, death was racing with it. Mixer, in fact, was alive all of the time that his family mourned him, and for nearly all of the time the courts were debating whether or not to call him legally dead. His existence was not known until his wife and she was prosecuting the lawsuit in good faith.

The Federal Supreme Court made the decision, received and at the same time the clerk of the court here was informed that Mixer had died in Iowa, about 200 miles from Wilshire. He had been living, shortly before his death decided that he was not legally dead. On his death bed he told the friends with whom he lived about his family members of his family got word in time to attend his funeral.

The widow now will receive her insurance money, even though she lost her suit after traveling through all of the courts of the land.

Special Statement by Mr. Perkins:

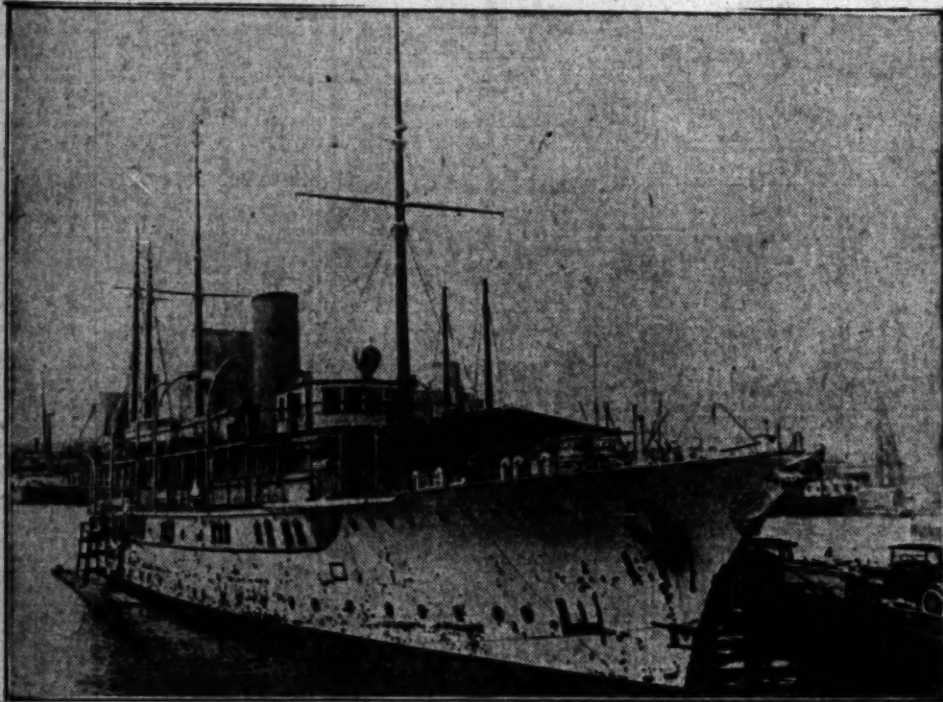

Integrity and reliability have always been my traits and principles, and these same traits and principles will be maintained in this institution, which is based on American ideals and principles and conducted by Americans throughout. As long as the name of Perkins is carried over my door, I further wish to state that under no circumstances will I reduce my price any further in order to meet competitors of those who can well afford to advertise a cheap price. If there is any further increase in the purchase price of high-grade fabrics, rather than substitute an inferior grade of fabric at a much cheaper price, which would endanger the reputation of this institution, I stand by the high-grade wools. I've always believed in and I'll raise my prices accordingly. An explanation relative to such action on my part is entirely unnecessary in and I'll raise my prices accordingly. ## Pictorial Review of Latest in Science and Invention Converted for Scientific Use, the million-dollar yacht Vanadis (pictured above), formerly the property of C. K. G. Billings, will be turned over to William Beebe, noted naturalist, upon his return from his present trip of exploration in the Sargasso Sea. (P. & A. photo.)

Weather Predictions a Century in Advance are a possibility of the near future if United States Navy theories regarding the influence of ocean currents are correct. Lieutenant-Commander Brandt (above) will sail the U.S.S. Rainbow on an expedition to study the ocean in connection with the theories. (P. & A. photo.)

are you working for your husband's Second wife?

TOO often "A Good Wife" consumes her youth, vitality and good looks helping her husband create a fortune, only to be discarded or die just as the family fortune should enable her to really enjoy life. Investigation proves that nine out of ten such women have wasted their lives in useless hard work through a mistaken idea that "doing without" and spending their days in drudgery was a duty.

Is eagerly bought by the efficient woman not only because it saves her, and her time, but also because she knows it saves her family's clothes and that a Maytag pays for itself out of what it costs to have clothes laundered by ordinary methods.

ARMY BRANCH TO CELEBRATE

Quartermaster Corps Event Set for 16th Inst.

Birthday Will be 150th for Supply Organization

Exercises Planned in Many Parts of World

BY FREDERIC J. HASKIN
(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)

WASHINGTON, June 7.—The Quartermaster Corps will have another birthday on the 16th inst. One hundred and fifty years ago this branch of the American Army was born in Carpenter's Hall, Philadelphia. There it is planned to stage a celebration doing honor to this next to the oldest continuous branch of the Army.

Simultaneously, in France, China, Alaska, the Philippine Islands, the Hawaiian Islands, the Panama Canal Zone and, in fact, in every place where there are gathered together two or more members of the Quartermaster Corps, it is expected there will be some sort of a celebration.

While these exercises probably will not all take the same form, Maj.-Gen. W. H. Hart, the present Quartermaster-General, wishes the general idea of them all to be of a historical and informative nature. Gen. Hart believes that the story of the Quartermaster Corps from the Revolutionary War up to the present time will be of interest to the average citizen.

The Continental Congress adopted the following resolution instituting the Quartermaster Corps: "Resolved: That there be one Quartermaster-General for the grand Army and one deputy under him for the separate army. That the pay of the Quartermaster-General be $80 per month, and that of the deputy, $40 per month."

Certainly in these days of high cost of living there would be no wild scramble for the honor of being Quartermaster-General at the munificent salary of $80 per month.

FIRST CHIEF

Thomas Mifflin of Pennsylvania was appointed the first Quartermaster-General by Gen. George Washington. Within six months he had been promoted to the grade of colonel. Later, he was made a brigadier-general and transferred to the field with line troops.

After the winter at Valley Forge Gen. Washington appointed Gen. Nathaniel Greene Quartermaster-General. Gen. Greene started the long line of reorganization schemes which have been so unpopular with the American Army.

At the end of the Revolutionary War the strength of the Army was so reduced that the work of the Quartermaster-General became almost negligible. In fact, in 1792, Congress enacted that "all the purchases and contracts for supplying the Army with provisions, clothing, supplies in the Quartermaster's Department, military stores, Indian goods, and all other supplies or articles for the use of the Department of War, be made by and under the direction of the Treasury Department."

The Corps, however, worried alone after a fashion until 1799, when hostilities with France were threatened. At that time the appointment of a Quartermaster-General with rank of major-general was authorized. The hostilities did not materialize, and again the Army was reduced to peace-time proportions. This reduction resulted in the transfer of the functions of the Quartermaster's organization to certain paymasters, assistant paymasters and military agents without any co-ordinating head other than the Secretary of War.

FORCE RE-ESTABLISHED
When war again threatened in 1812, this time with England, the department was re-established. This may be considered as the actual beginning of the permanent Quartermaster Corps, which has developed into the present organization of varied activities.

Until 1812 the subsistence department was separate from the Quartermaster Corps. That department had existed in one form or another since 1776, when the Continental Congress provided that there should be a Commissary-General of Stores and Provisions. Later this department was divided into two branches—a commissary-general of purchases and a commissary-general of issues. In 1812, however, these two were again combined and the office of Commissary-General established. This remained in force until 1817, when the duties of this office were taken over by the Quartermaster Corps.

The Act of April 14, 1818, under which the office of Commissary-General was authorized, put both the Quartermaster and subsistence divisions on a more stable footing.

PSEUDO INDIANS TO PRESENT PAGEANTS

EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH
PRESCOTT (Ariz.) June 7.—One of the greatest spectacles presented in the Southwest is the famous event known as "Way Out West," to be held on June 12. The mysterious "Smoki People" on the second Friday in June annually present their interpretation of Indian ceremonies of the Southwest.

This year three impressive ceremonies will be given in Prescott, the "Jewel of the Mountains." "Dear Dance," the "Flute Ceremony" and the weird prayer for rain known as the "Snake Dance." Hundreds of reservations already have been made for this day, when the Smoki People assemble in the city among the pines. All three ceremonies are beautiful, weird and fascinating, from the time the participants start their chanting and dancing until the sun goes down there is a hush among the thousands who yearly watch these interesting ceremonies.

CANADA DISCOVERS
NEW GRAZING AREA

EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH
VICTORIA (B. C.) June 7.—Discovery of a great grazing area in the interior of British Columbia, more than fifty miles wide and capable of maintaining 200,000 head of cattle throughout the year, was announced by the Minister of Lands as the result of an exploration made by T. P. McKenzie, grazing commissioner for this Province. The new territory lies west of the North Thompson River and between Bear River and Bonaparte and Young's Lakes.

Social Wolves

Wherever young folks congregate, in schools, at business, in places of amusement, there social wolves hunt, singly or in packs. Woe to the innocent boy or girl who falls under their dread influence. The story of Helen Saunders, beautiful high school girl, is true, all except the names which of necessity had to be disguised. Let the terrible thing that happened to her be a warning to young and old alike.

UNTIL she reached the age of seventeen, Helen never gave her parents a moment's worry. In her mother she confided her hopes, her fears, her plans. She was her father's pal. When she went out in the evening, they knew where she was and who she was with.

Then Zan Thompson, who was a senior in the same high school and worldly wise with the wisdom of the gutter, became interested in her. He began paying her attentions. He flattered her girlish vanity. He made himself as fascinating to her as he possibly could with the result that she fell deeply under his evil influence.

Soon she was a different girl. No longer did she talk over school matters at home. If questioned she became sullen and rebellious. In company she was loud and boisterous. Her face took on a furtive, secretive look as though she were hiding something. Pleading and remonstrance had no effect. Disregarding her mother's warning she continued to meet Zan Thompson at every opportunity.

Matters went from bad to worse, until one fateful night the blow fell. Helen failed to return. All night her parents waited in despair not knowing where she was.

Then as dawn was breaking they heard the street door open quietly and a soft step in the hall.

The story of Helen Saunders, the manner in which she fell under the influence of Zan Thompson and the devastating result of that association upon her spiritual and moral character is told in True Story Magazine for July under the title "Saving Helen."

The following letter from Helen's mother which accompanied the manuscript of "Saving Helen" gives you some idea of the depths of sincerity and earnestness in the hearts of the men and women who bare their souls for the benefit of mankind in True Story Magazine.

Editor of True Story Magazine—"Enclosed you will find a story true in all incidents, changed only in names and location, and the fact that instead of the one girl I have two other children. I have opened my heart to write this, with a hope that it may halt some other girl, who finds herself drawn away from the home circle by the same influences met at school or in social life. Perhaps the result of this story may draw back another who has just placed her feet on the downward path. In any event it goes from me to your office with the great desire back of it to help weak humanity in some way. You may feel that my sympathy has not been sufficiently warm for the erring boy. I feel bitterly sorry for him, and was able to help him in a way that came unexpectedly, but I feel that his term in the Reformatory will be his salvation. Something had to be done to soften the shell of his mature criminal indifference to law and decency. If he can be helped then I am ready to help him, but he can never again touch my child. Trusting you may find the story acceptable, I remain,

Sincerely,

Don't Miss These Other Intensely Absorbing Features in July True Story:

"Broken Vows"—If you suddenly discovered that your husband had a secret love affair with a younger and prettier girl—what would you do? This was the problem facing the wife who tells this heart-grIPPING story. What she did—and its dramatic outcome—will surprise you. Don't miss it!

"Danger Signals"—When Jack was unable to provide the luxuries his wife had counted on—she tried to satisfy her resentment by encouraging the attentions of other men. Had she known the peril she was inviting—but read what happened. A true story you'll never forget.

"Blind Innocence"—In her innocence, June married Charley Shattuck—little dreaming that he would quickly tire of her, and seek his pleasures among rowdy friends in the cabarets. Today the memory of what happened is like a hideous nightmare. The story of her experience will grip you like a vise.

"True Story is a Godsend"

To The Editor of True Story Magazine: Ignorance may be no excuse in law, but it is in life. Some men see in the excuse to become beasts, others the opportunity for financial gain. I have read and heard many stories of how girls were brought up in ignorance and of how they fell on account of it. Parents should tell their sons and daughters of the pitfalls of life, but many of them do not do it. That is why I say your magazine is a Godsend. It opens the door of learning of life that all should know—the dark side—the bright side, written by people who have not imagined, but have gone through the ordeals, and write from their very soul hoping that some one may profit by their experience. It is a great work and I only wish that every father and mother, every son and daughter could read it. Then this would be a different world. I don't know anything you could do to make True Story Magazine any better, I cannot name a story in it that was not a good investment in knowledge and well worth the time spent in reading it. It is hard to say that we enjoy reading of others' misfortunes, but the human heart goes out in sympathy to those who turned the wrong way and they offer the readers a guard, derived from the experiences of others. I hope that my family and I can always read True Story. I'm sure we will all profit in doing so, the stories ring true and they are stories we would never hear of, but for the opportunity afforded by True Story Magazine, stories that are close to the hearts of their writers, secrets that they are ashamed of, mistakes that cost them much, written from their hearts and souls, that some one, somewhere, in this big world of human ignorance may read and learn. Yours very truly for continued success in educational stories,

Jack Cosh,
Box 115, Digger, Ind.

The Crusade of Truth

When Bernard Macfadden began publishing True Story Magazine, it marked the birth of a crusade against evil, sin and vice such as the world had never known.

True Story has as its main purpose to warn against the fatal but often natural human errors that wreck the bodies, blast the souls, and destroy the lives of young and old everywhere.

And time has proven beyond the shadow of a doubt that its material method is successful and its ideal of human service right.

Today, after only six years of publication, its two million monthly copies are read by approximately six million clear-thinking, far-seeing, courageous men and women.

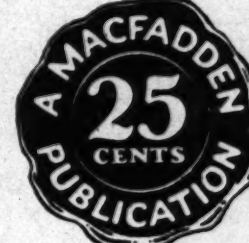

In all that time, not one word has been printed in its pages that any clean, healthy, unprejudiced mind could take exception to.

Never in True Story Magazine is sin or shame or wrong of any kind painted in any but its true colors, never is it glorified or made to seem anything but what it really is—sin, or shame or wrong—and as such to be shunned and avoided.

To make sure that True Story accomplishes the greatest possible amount of good, for more than a year every story appearing between its covers has been subjected to the exacting scrutiny of a supervising Ministerial Board composed of clergymen in active charge of New York Parishes including Episcopal, Methodist, Presbyterian, Catholic and Hebrew creeds. No story that does not teach a powerful moral lesson can possibly escape their vigilance and find a place in True Story Magazine.

So far as we are aware, no other nationally circulated magazine has ever gone to such an extreme in guarding the moral quality of its contents.

If you are not now a reader of True Story Magazine begin at once with the current issue. The July number may be had at any newsstand. The price is only a quarter. Get your copy today.

HOLLYWOOD HEIGHTS IS VICTORIOUS

Freebooters Emerge Losers in 10-to-7 Polo Contest on Movie City Field

H.A.C. TO GO IN FOR FOOTBALL

Movie City Clumbmen May Put Eleven Into Field This Season

James Irfield, chairman of the athletic committee of the Hollywood Athletic Club announced last night that the movie city club would probably go in for football, and would play U.S.C. California, Olympic Club, Multnomah Club and other clubs or colleges on the Pacific Coast.

At the present time the film city club has nearly every athlete at U.S.C. signed up for the track team and most of the boys are football stars as well. Some cannot play with Hollywood until they graduate, but a few are now, Irfield would probably coach the team himself, as he was one of the outstanding left halfbacks in the Big Ten when he was a member of the famous Minnesota eleven in 1904-5.

A football game between the Olympic Club and the Hollywood Athletic Club would be an attraction that would draw well in Southern California or up north.

Much credit for the success of the Hollywood club in athletics is due George L. Eastman, James Irfield, Fred Smith, Bert Hartwell, Norman McMillan, G. R. Dexter, C. E. Toberman and Joe McEllan, well-known amateur sportsmen, who are a great boost to the game.

FIGHTERS USE MOTHER'S MAIDEN NAMES TO WIN GLORY IN FISTIC WARFARE

Two fighters will enter the ring at Vernon tomorrow night carrying their mothers' maiden names.

They are Ephraim Romero and John Finkelshtein.

The ring world does not know them when mentioned in this way. Their glory has been earned under different names.

Ephraim Romero is Bert Collins. John Finkelshtein is Jackie Fields.

Collins was the maiden name of Bert's mother. If she were alive today no doubt she would be quite proud of her boy. Mothers like to see their sons succeed.

Fields was the maiden name of Jackie's mother. She is 48 years of age. They occupy a comfortable home near Exposition Park. Jackie does his work in the park.

The home has been provided by Jackie's ring earnings. And Mrs. Finkelshtein is about the proudest mother in Los Angeles. There was a time when every penny counted in the Finkelshtein household.

They moved here from Chicago in 1921 for the father's health. Just before Fields boxed Joe Sales at Hollywood the father passed away.

Since then the responsibility, once borne by the father, has passed to the youthful shoulders of Jackie, 18-year-old fighter.

"I've got to box a little often," says Jackie. "It is up to me to give my mother the things we once weren't able to afford."

She must have a big home. Then I want to get a motor car so she will not get old. "Before my father died I looked upon boxing as a game of fun. Now it will be work. He'll make me try a little harder. Some day I may win the lightweight title. "I'll probably get too heavy before I can meet the best featherweights."

"I weighed less than 100 pounds when we left Chicago four years ago. "Boxing has developed me. I scaled around 122 when I won the Olympia featherweight championship at Park. "I hope I don't get bigger than a lightweight. I want to stay there so I can be an other Benny Leonard."

Fields has two brothers and two sisters. They are Max, 22; Rose, 20, recently married; Helen, 13, and Sammy, 10.

Collins adopted a little Mexican baby about a year ago. He spends most of his time with her. The boy is named after the late father.

The fighting characteristics are usually played most when ring characters are being belittled.

The life they live at home is seldom pictured.

The splendid family lives of Collins and Fields are worth knowing.

And along with it both are real fighters.

Collins meets Henry Melcar in the star ten-round Vernon bout. Fields appears in the semi-wind-up against Billy Young in a six.

Melcar and Young are the short-enders. But there is a bad epidemic of upsets just now.

Mr. Melcar meets Mr. Taylor. Mr. Gibbons meets Mr. Tunney. Mr. Godfrey meets Mr. Resnault.

Not to mention Mr. Ascot.

of the semifinals for the President's Golf Trophy Cup at the Hillcrest Club yesterday.

Elmer Benjamin turned in a net 70 to win Sweepstakes honors from Hills Eklens, who finished with a 71. Phil Frankel took third honors with a 72.

BRENTWOOD GOLF IS FAST

H. W. Kirby finished 1 down to win Class A honors in the annual week-end tournament at Brentwood yesterday. D. G. Brown won second prize with a card that figured 2 down.

J. W. Bronson finished even to lead a fast field in the Class B event. H. R. Coulter, W. E. Miller, E. T. Turner came in 1 down for second honors. J. C. Rudnick and W. F. Lincoln landed in the 2-down bracket.

WHITE BOX COP TWO

The L. A. White Sox defeated the Kant Shore Pistons on the latter's diamond yesterday in both ends of a double-header by the score of 9 to 3. The score:

PIONEERS FACE DEMOCRATS

L. A. High and Jefferson to Battle for City League Baseball Title at Housh Field Today

For the third time in five years, L. A. High and Jefferson will play for the city baseball championship when they clash at Housh Field this afternoon. The two schools met with the title at stake in 1921 and 1923. The Pioneers won both games after being behind all the way. Both were played at Washington Park. Negotiations were made for today's game to be played at the same place, but it was decided to go according to schedule.

Coach Herbert Whites and Bill Lopez have drilled the rival nines as close to perfection as high-school teams can get, and the championship depends entirely on the streaks and the way the individuals are going. Nothing has been left undone to increase the effort to take the title.

The teams are about even in all respects except one—the Democrats are more experienced. Six of the regulars faced L. A. High in the first game.

On the other hand, either Roy Warren or Phil Grossman can lead the Pioneers and be equally effective for Jefferson. Both are above the average of high-school twirlers and if one gets wild the other can take his place.

H.A.C. TO GO IN FOR FOOTBALL

Movie City Clumbmen May Put Eleven Into Field This Season

James Irfield, chairman of the athletic committee of the Hollywood Athletic Club announced last night that the movie city club would probably go in for football, and would play U.S.C. California, Olympic Club, Multnomah Club and other clubs or colleges on the Pacific Coast.

At the present time the film city club has nearly every athlete at U.S.C. signed up for the track team and most of the boys are football stars as well. Some cannot play with Hollywood until they graduate, but a few are now, Irfield would probably coach the team himself, as he was one of the outstanding left halfbacks in the Big Ten when he was a member of the famous Minnesota eleven in 1904-5.

A football game between the Olympic Club and the Hollywood Athletic Club would be an attraction that would draw well in Southern California or up north.

Much credit for the success of the Hollywood club in athletics is due George L. Eastman, James Irfield, Fred Smith, Bert Hartwell, Norman McMillan, G. R. Dexter, C. E. Toberman and Joe McEllan, well-known amateur sportsmen, who are a great boost to the game.

FIVE KILLED IN TRAFFIC Two Women Among Victims; Coupe Forces Car Off Mountain Road, Driver Dies

Two women and three men were killed and two other men were probably mortally hurt in traffic accidents in Southern California yesterday. In one of the accidents, in Waterman Canyon in the San Bernardino Mountains, a coupe which ran into another car and forced it from the road, continued on without stopping. Its occupants, two young men and two girls, are being sought by police. Among the casualties were two brothers, said to have been the sole support of an aged and blind father.

The victim of the Waterman Canyon crash was Carl Clifford Grubbs, 18 years of age, of 393 Third street, San Bernardino. He was driven toward Lake Arrowhead with Archie Heatherly, 19, and Harold West, 20, also of San Bernardino. In turning a corner his car met the crowded coupe, at what was described as reckless speed. There was no chance to avoid a collision and Grubbs' car was forced off a precipice to the bottom of the canyon thirty feet below. The coupe did not even stop.

Ben Martin, a Los Angeles medical student, followed down the mountain about fifteen minutes later and found the crushed car. He extricated the three men from the wreckage and found Heatherly and West shaken but very little hurt. Grubbs was mortally hurt. The coupe party will be before the accident near Lake Arrowhead and a description obtained which it is believed will identify them. Reports to the San Bernardino police were to the effect that all four appeared to have been driving soberly.

In another accident, John Germany, 17 years of age, was killed and his brother, Tommy Germany, 20, was so badly hurt his death is expected. They lived with their father at 1045 West Ninety-fifth street. He is described as a helpless invalid.

The death toll included Mrs. Nettie Johnson, 39 years of age, of 1111 Hill street, who was killed almost instantly when an automobile in which she was riding crashed into a lamp post at Washington street and Redondo Boulevard. Mrs. Johnson was killed. The four serious casualties were Don W. Hope, 29, baker, of 538 South Fremont street, said to be in a critical condition at White Memorial Hospital as the result of injuries received when his automobile overturned at the intersection of Pico and Alvarado streets. Three companions, including two young women, also were injured in the accident.

Moneta Show Committee to Meet Tonight
The final meeting of the general committee of the Moneta-Broadway Business Association will be conducted tonight to complete plans for the Moneta-avenue industrial exposition, to be held the 18th inst. to the 20th inst. It was announced yesterday by H. H. Evans, chairman of the committee, and secretary of the business association. The meeting will be in a huge tent at Moneta avenue and Forty-seventh Place, in which the exposition will be staged.

In addition to exhibits by merchants of the district, Evans stated, there will be a fashion review, an automobile show, booths, stunts, concerts, dancing and vaudeville. The exposition will be held to stimulate interest in the district and as a part of the all-Southern celebration of the construction of the lower half of the $2,000,000 Southwest Storm Drain.

ACTOR UNION THREATENS SHOW HERE
Maclean's Disposal of His "No, No, Nanette" Interest Averts Walkout

By a mere hairbreadth, Los Angeles yesterday just missed seeing the "No, No, Nanette" company at the Mason Opera-house called out on a strike by officials of the Actors' Equity Association. Not that there was any trouble here but the shut-down was to be a sympathetic strike to help the union achieve its aims in a trouble at San Francisco.

At the Curran Theater there, an audience Saturday night waited half an hour for Jane Cowie's "Romeo and Juliet" to begin and then was told that it could get its money back at the box office because the actors had been called out by a representative of the organization. "Romeo and Juliet" was a production put on by Louis O. Maclean of Los Angeles. Maclean and the Equity became embroiled in a controversy in which he was accused by the union of not following rules it has laid down for dealings with union actors, such as constituted the personnel of the "Romeo and Juliet" company. This controversy finally got to the point where the union resorted to calling Maclean's company out on strike.

Under the impression that Maclean had an interest in the "No, No, Nanette" company, which is enjoying a successful run at the Mason here, the union's New York headquarters wired Wednesday morning to call Maclean's company out on strike. The same hazard hung also over "Lady Be Good," which opened last night at the Curran, San Francisco. "Lady Be Good" was also to be shut down by a union strike for the same reason, but the same deal in which Maclean bought "No, No, Nanette" was also to be shut down by a union strike for the same reason, but the same deal in which Maclean bought "No, No, Nanette" was also to be shut down by a union strike for the same reason.

Major's greatest difficulty came yesterday from the stars whom he drew. All of them wanted the originals to use as models on next Valentine's Day. And all of them were to be shut down by a union strike for the same reason, but the same deal in which Maclean bought "No, No, Nanette" was also to be shut down by a union strike for the same reason.

Trio of Women Victims Revived by Treatment at Receiving Hospital

What gave four women, living in widely separated parts of the city, sudden distaste for continued existence at almost the same moment yesterday?

Police surgeons asked this question as the four were taken to the Receiving Hospital, and three revived, all within fifteen minutes. Financial trouble, dependency and general disgust with living were the causes given by the women. All were poison.

The consumer had paid her light bill and waited over to catch a shining electric range. The oven door was open and a golden brown cake was enticingly displayed. A spotless enamel tea kettle covered one of the heating units.

Several girls were back of the shield in the cashier's department and the woman in the range was curious to know if two "lookers" would ignite a spark of interest in the electric range. But they continued answering questions, pausing occasionally for a friendly word or two. Further down the aisle, a man and woman obviously they were not selling ranges; at least not to

One of her ideas was to establish a demonstrator, who, although acting as a manufacturer's agent, This was done only in a small way but helped to pay the cost of advertising. The idea was to be a twofold at the same time.

The limitations of the job is obvious. A perfect handicaps of the girl starting in business. She fits into a hole and never looks over the top. That particular hole is the job and whatever years pass before she sticks her head up and sees opportunities going begging for her. She is a girl who can perform what she conceives to be the duties for which she is offered.

MOANA COCKTAIL
Mix in cold bowl one teaspoonful of oil, two teaspoonfuls of sugar, one tablespoonful of finely chopped preserved ginger, half a teaspoonful of lemon juice, two teaspoonfuls of lemon juice, half a cupful of orange juice and one cupful of olive oil. Beat well for four minutes and add ice to chill and beat again. Fill stem glasses two-thirds full.

turned to the window and asked the price of the range. "I don't have a price tag on it," said Mr. Brown. "I'll tell you anything at that minute," I told her I didn't see one, and would like to know. "I'll tell you anything to do with the Peating appliances," he informed me, and called over her shoulder to another girl, asking her to get the price of the range of the range, would return. But no one seemed to know the price of the range.

"I left the electric company's office without having learned the price of that range. The woman had proceeded me by ten steps," I said.

"I turned toward the car. I recalled a girl I'd known in another city in just such an office. She not only held down her job as a saleswoman, but pushed the electric appliances so eagerly that she was made assistant sales manager, and the sole arbiter in everything but the price of the range. She even had a half-dozen toasters and a grill iron to turn an entire floor of the building."

SHRINE FETE SUCCESSFUL SAYS FLINT

and Made Shoes

Compliments Pouring in From All Parts of Country to Conclave Director

Shrine week began to be a merry yesterday. Officially, the trainload of visiting Shriners departed Saturday, but an occasional red-fuzzed man could be seen yesterday and there were doubtless many others who had resumed ordinary headgear. The decoration on downtown streets remained the same. Los Angeles of a "most successful affair"—the words are those of Motley H. Flint, director general of the entertainment program.

"We have nothing to regret," said Mr. Flint. "We have received the most enthusiastic compliments from all parts of the United States. The Shriners left with the spirit of Los Angeles and it has meant the enshrinement of California in new hearts all over the country."

Regarding the financial outcome of the month's council, Mr. Flint stated it would be uncertain for several days.

"We had two bad days which necessitated a large added expense. Thursday's rain cost us a large sum, and as all the reports have not come in, I can't even estimate if we will come out even. We were disappointed, however, by the response of the people of Los Angeles regarding the ticket sale. People here failed to realize the magnitude and importance of the convention and hence our ticket sale to people of the city fell away below our anticipation."

About ten days ago it was cession. When our car was out of commission I insisted upon us taking a taxi."

It is estimated that the total Shrine expenses for the council would approximate $350,000. This, however, it was learned yesterday, has been greatly increased due to certain conditions which cropped up unexpectedly.

The clean-up vanguard began work late Saturday night on the main streets of the city and continued work through yesterday. By tonight it is estimated that the last of the decorations, of one of the greatest conclaves in the country, will have been pulled down.

Local Shrine officials yesterday were preoccupied by resting at home or retreating to some quiet nook in the city.

"The 'convention' came at an opportune time for Al Malinik," says a high official of Al Malinik Shrine, "but it has caused us some adverse publicity which Los Angeles has received in the last year. It will do more to stimulate good will and true knowledge of the Shrines than all the literature in the world that could have been disseminated. The rain knocked us off our feet, but it has certainly helped to have a big deficit. We know, each and every one, that somewhere else could such a success be staged. And we are satisfied."

ACTORS ARRESTED IN REAL STREET FIGHT

Two actors staged a real fight early yesterday at Sixth and Spring streets, according to Officer Brazier, desisting only when Brazier held them forcibly apart. FORUM OFFERING ACROBATIC What is this conspiracy afoot to make Priscilla a sort of feature film? Priscilla, the feature film, with her sensually Matronlike, not acrobatic, ability.

For instance, there is her latest film, "The Scarlet Runner," now running all this week, at the Forum. Here Miss Dean is cast as a sort of glorified Robin Hood, who robs the Viennese plutocrats in order to succor the poor, downtrodden masses. "Innocent victims of war," she accomplishes her high-hearted charity by means of precarious dashes over housetops, atop book cases, the ever scorning a chandelier or two in case of emergency!

But, in spite of the entirely impossible story, Priscilla Dean makes the film worth seeing, just because she plays the irrepressible Miss Ward Crane, as the conventional, very conventional hero, gives excellent support to the star, while Alan Hale, who makes his inevitable violent death, gives to the heavy to me the best work of their two careers in the star parts. And they say that Louis Gansler doesn't try to direct first-class pictures. Well, man, maybe that accounts for the splendid acting in this. Bert Lytell, Anita Stewart and Arthur Edmore, and Arthur Edmore, and and evidently were delighted to have a chance to act spontaneously and naturally as their intelligence and experience directed them to with Gansler merely gen-in the air, talk of who should be the next president to succeed Mrs.

John P. Lyons of Port Worth, Tex., national president, who has served for two terms.

The contest appears to be between the East and the West. The Easterners who have kept the presidency in their grasp, with the exception of one term when it was held by a Colorado woman, wish to go east again and they are backing Mrs. Edgar Stillman Kelley of Oxford, O., for the president. Mrs. Kelley is chairman of the American music committee and is an outstanding figure in the convention.

MAYNARD READY TO START THIRD FILM
"The Haunted Range," third of a series of western dramas featuring Ken Maynard, cowboy star, will go into actual production at the Horatio studio early next week, according to an announcement made by Clifford S. Eilfert, head of the distributing firm bearing his name. Casting is now well under way and Paul Hurst, director of outdoor-type pictures, has been selected to film the production.
"Barbarian" Maynard, who has and the Hollywood beauty set, comprising the pick of the film capital's most beautiful women, will be featured in the cast of "The Haunted Range." The first two pictures of the Maynard series, "4500 Reward" and "Flight into Courage," are now being shown with success, according to Eilfert. A total of eight productions based on western stories will go to make up the initial group of photoplays starring Maynard. All will be released through the independent film market.

WESLEY BARRY PLANS
TO ENTER ANNAPOLIS Wesley Barry, juvenile hero of dozens of film productions and now supporting the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's "True Blue," which is being filmed at Annapolis Naval Academy, is about to realize his life's ambition. Since being taken east by Director Christy Cabanne to support Novarre in the Naval Academy picture, Wesley's ambition has been fired and he has notified his mother, Mrs. Martha Barry, that he will become a midshipman in the U. S. Navy. The entrance examinations are held.
The youngster, who is now 17 years of age, will be coached for some months and then will seek an appointment to the academy through his Congressman.

PATHS, SUGAR AND SOBS
BY HERBERT MOUTON
For those who like plenty of saccharine in their cinema fare, "The Little French Girl," which opens Saturday at the Metropolitan, will undoubtedly have a strong appeal.
But for those who don't—and there must be quite a number of us—the creation will pass by as just another item in a season of rather humdrum screen offerings.

The principal interest in "The Little French Girl," of course, lies in the fact that it is Mary Brian, the charming little Wendy "Peter Pan" makes her debut in a straight role. And just to show that she has unbounded faith in her histrionic ability, the producers cast Miss Brian alongside of such adept players as Alice Joyce, Neil Hamilton and Esther Ralston.
That this latest screen arrival has an unusual amount of dramatic talent will be apparent to almost everyone who sees the picture. It does not appear to be true, until the climax of the story, when she stands up and makes a vigorous speech on the subject of her mother's morals.

James Cruze is poring over a large number of stills taken seventy years ago. Cruze is preparing to reconstruct for his next picture for Paramount, the story of the early days of the city of Sacramento, Cal., as it existed in the gold-rush days, is to be filmed and Cruze has obtained all available photographs and sketches showing the streets of the city at that time.
He is working long and late over these in order to have the city historically correct. The story will be built somewhere about the present site of Sacramento, along the banks of the Sacramento or American rivers.

SENNETT TO DRESS UP
SLAPSTICK COMEDIES
TIME HAS COME TO UNITE
REAL FOLKS AND HUMOR.
AVERS PIONEER
"Dress up your broad comedy—camouflage your slapstick!" is the new edict at the Mack Sennett Studio.

The idea is alarming to the casual reader. He will wonder if this peer of tolling fun films is about to turn his back on the good old broadside laugh.
Sennett says at once, "Not a bit of it. I'm only going to put the laughter-making stuff into a new dress. Accidents of environment and coincidence happen in every walk of life. Comedy-makers have for years gone on the assumption that only the brainer and the scruffy woman could come out of a situation. But the fact is that the comedians of the world have experienced the contretemps of an overturned cream jug, or a roast failing to cook, or a woman's slippers I'm going to let films show these episodes as I know they happen.
The slapstick will all be there as before, but the comedy will be wearing better clothes, smarter coiffures and live in better homes." The 225-foot "South Sea Gold" is showing new faces, cleaner make-up, and situations far removed from the rough-and-ready stuff which animated many of the earlier productions.

A silver soup tureen filled with cream tomato soup is just as expensive and just as splashy as a tub of soap-suds," says Sennett. "And if a charming woman in a perfect evening dress upsets it, instead of a grotesque man with a comedy moustache, the situation is so much nearer to reality—and therefore much funnier."

Kappa Alpha Theta Will Install Unit at Southern Branch

Marking a further step in the acceptance of the Southern Branch of the University of California of national importance, the oldest women's national sorority will install a local chapter the 15th to 16th inst. Kappa Alpha Theta, founded at De Pauw University in 1876, now has fifty-two active chapters, forty-four alumnae chapters and thirteen alumnae clubs. Southern Branch will have the fifth active chapter on the Pacific Coast. The installing national officers will be Mrs. C. A. Bennis, Spokane; Mrs. H. F. Thompson, Birmingham; and Mrs. Mervin Gandy of Berkeley.

The local alumnae number many prominent women, including Mrs. Ada Edwards Laughlin, Mrs. Lee Allen Phillips, Mrs. John Cobb Macfarland, Mrs. L. J. Muma, Mrs. J. B. Lippincott, Mrs. Roy Kepp, Miss Eleanor Booth, Miss Ada Lindley, Miss Jane Spaulding, Miss Sue Barnwell, Mrs. M. Stephens, Mrs. Arthur Heinemann, Mrs. Volney Craig and Miss Winifred Mitchell. The pledge service will be the 15th inst., at the Kappa Alpha Theta house at University of Southern California, the initiation on the 16th inst., at Cumnock School, and the formal installation banquet the 16th inst., at the Friday Morning Club. The alumnae will tender a reception at the Women's University Club, the 16th inst.

The following members will be initiated: Fern M. Bouck, Margaret Boyd, Alice L. Brown, Annie Keyes, Joyce Jewell Turner, Mabel Westenhaver, Cynthia Ann Fry, Brunella E. Goodwin, Corinne Little, Beth Shuler, Mildred Stanford, Marion A. Whitaker, Agnes De Mille, Lois Fee, Marjorie Finch, Elizabeth Fontenot, Elizabeth Keyes, Helen Nell, Dorothy Walton, Adele Ward, Barbara Brinkhoff, Anna Fontenot, Dorothy Green, Evelyn Green, Katherine Irving, Peggy James, Ruth Kimball, Thelma Martin, Marjorie Randall, Mary Stutler, Elizabeth Wellborn, Katherine Kedzie, Clarissa Bachelder Cadwalder, Janice Benedict Boogar and Mary K. Girl Beats Off Assailant After Fight on Campus

Lurching upon her from the shadows as she walked past the Jefferson School campus late Saturday night, a man attempted to attack Miss Gladys Bowman of 2834 University avenue, according to her report yesterday to the University police. Her assailant, a shabbily attired man of powerful build, placed one hand over her mouth and with the other dragged her across the lawn and up the schoolhouse steps, according to the girl's story.

In the struggle which followed she managed to free herself. Her screams frightened the man, who fled. The girl was unable to furnish the police with an accurate description of the man.

LIBEL SUIT DIVORCE SEQUEL

Laura Matthews, who says she is the Mildred Matthews named as co-respondent by Mrs. Doris Ruppe in her suit for divorce from Louis Ruppe, wealthy Los Angeles undertaker, has filed suit for $50,000 damages against Mrs. Ruppe. Libel and slander are charged.

The plaintiff says that naming her as Mildred Matthews in the divorce complaint was simply a subterfuge to avoid responsibility, as her identity was established by the mention of her address at 303 Chevy Chase Apartments. She complains that the filing of the divorce action and the resultant publicity have caused her great damage, discomfort and financial loss, the last by reason of having compelled her to forego an important business trip to the East. She says she has been prominently engaged in the Eastern Star and other Masonic organizations

The image is a vertical, high-contrast scan of a dark, textured surface. It appears to be a book cover or endpaper, characterized by a prominent vertical crease or fold line running down the center. The texture is grainy and uneven, with varying shades of black and dark grey. There are some lighter, vertical streaks and spots scattered across the surface, possibly due to the scanning process or the material's texture. The overall appearance is that of a worn, dark object.
